Quality meets excellence in Portogruaro
Santa Margherita is the main sponsor of the 29th Summer Music Festival
18th July – 16th September 2011

“A tempo” International Music Festival

In its firm belief that wine culture is part of all-round general culture, Santa Margherita is the main sponsor for the triennial 2011-2013 Portogruaro Summer Music Festival. The Summer Festival is a key event for concert musicians, teachers and students from all over the world. It's a feather in the cap for the entire Santa Cecilia Musical Foundation concert production.

Through sponsorship of the event, Santa Margherita, owned by the Marzotto family, wishes once again emphasise its deep bond with its home territory, by promoting artistic traditions and supporting initiatives staged for the community.

The 2011 edition of the Summer Music Festival is truly unique, with a packed programme of events and gatherings. The inaugural concert will take place on Monday 18th July, with music by Françaix, Schubert and Strauss, performed by the Hagen Open Festival Octet. Next is an evening event on 23rd August, with pieces by Mozart, Milhaud and Prokofiev, performed by the Bibiena quintet.

The toast for these two events will bear the hallmark of two of Santa Margherita's top products: Valdobbiadene Prosecco Superiore DOCG 52 and Pinot Grigio Alto Adige DOC Impronta del Fondatore.
