

Press release

Quality meets excellence in Refrontolo
Santa Margherita is the main sponsor of the Stupefatte Visioni di Natura
Venetian Theatre Review

In its firm belief that wine culture is part of all-round general culture, Santa Margherita is the main sponsor of the "Stupefatte Visioni di Natura" Venetian Theatre Review, to be staged in Refrontolo, Treviso.

Through sponsorship of the event, Santa Margherita, owned by the Marzotto family, wishes once again to emphasise its deep bond with its home territory, promoting artistic traditions and supporting initiatives staged for the community.

The review is being promoted by the Municipality of Refrontolo with contributions from the Veneto Region and Santa Margherita, and directed by Mario Esposito. It will take place in the small town of Refrontolo, a few kilometres from Conegliano, among the lush Prosecco hills and breathtaking landscapes.

The events will be held in the Barchessa di Villa Spada:

- Saturday 1st October 20.30h
Pà-de-dù
two comedies by Carlo Gozzi
- Sunday 9th October 2011 16.30h
Parlami ancora
from the work by Andrea Zanzotto
- Friday 14th October 2011 20.30h
Theatrical adaptation Non tutti i bastardi sono di Vienna by Andrea Molesini, Sellerio Editore, winner of the 2011 Premio Campiello

The final toast, for each of these three events, will bear the Santa Margherita hallmark.

www.santamargherita.com

29th September 2011