Santa Margherita on tour beside Monica Guerritore in the End of the Rainbow show

In its firm belief that wine culture is part of all-round general culture, Santa Margherita, symbol of the best Italian wine-making tradition, confirms its desire to support the best of Italian national culture.

This time it is doing so by supporting "End of the Rainbow", the show starring Monica Guerritore. A prestigious member of the Jury in the eighth Santa Margherita Wine Literary Prize, Monica Guerritore stars in the demanding and already highly acclaimed musical, scheduled for performances in the most important Italian theatres, including Rome's Teatro Eliseo from 26th November to 15th December.

"End of the Rainbow" by Peter Quilter and produced by Isola Trovata srl, is directed by Juan Diego Puerta-Lopez and centres on the last six weeks of the life of star Judy Garland - both a tragic and entertaining musical at the same time. Onstage Monica Guerritore dances and performs, accompanied by musicians, eight of Garland's most charming songs live, proving her own worth with fascinating expressive intensity.

Santa Margherita's sponsorship continues to pay homage to the arts, because culture goes hand in hand with wine, across the board.
