VyTA Santa Margherita given a Special Mention at the Premio Nazionale di Architettura “Bar e Ristoranti d’Autore”.

An oasis for travellers, and high class rendezvous, to enjoy a few moments’ comfort and pleasure - that’s Vyta Santa Margherita. A place where the wine & food experience is raised to a perfect matching of style, glamour and balanced flavours.

Inside the monumental atrium of Milan’s Stazione Centrale, a metropolitan lifestyle icon, Vyta Santa Margherita offers you a charming place to stop, thanks to its clever mix of natural materials set off by carefully orchestrated, clever lighting which gives it a really elegant feel.

These and other ambient features won architect Daniela Colli’s design a Special Mention in the Premio Nazionale di Architettura Bar e Ristoranti d’Autore*.

The concept, which is outstandingly excellent in its use of space and elegant architectural and design solutions, has already joined the ranks of the ten best designs in the world for the “bakeries and cafés” category. It’s a venue that operates throughout the day and follows its client perfectly from breakfast right through to dinner where enhancing flavours takes centre stage.

Santa Margherita and Retail Food entered this partnership seeking supreme quality in carefully selected and lovingly prepared natural products, including coffee shop and bakery products and even a “wine cellar”, designed to create the perfect pairing with the range of food on offer.

The Premio Nazionale di Architettura Bar e Ristoranti d’Autore is in its first edition, and is promoted by IN/ARCH National Institute of Architecture, Gambero Rosso, Roma Tre University Faculty of Architecture, Artribune and Archilovers, with the patronage of Host Milano.*
